

LATE DEVELOPMENTS IN THE LOCAL SPORT WORLD

WHOLESALE WIN FROM BOTTLEMAKERS

Game Was Spoiled by Too Much Kicking on Decisions.

Though the Owens sluggers knocked Harold all over the lot, making seven of his delivery in three innings and getting a 4-1 lead, they were finally moved out of a victory by the Wholesale by a 6-5 score. Ashby who reaved Harold did effective work.

E. Boice pitched his usual good game and should have won his pitcher's battle again last evening. Errors behind him at critical moments spelled defeat.

The Wholesale displayed a bit of sportmanlike tactics in an effort to win the game and there was hardly a man who was not disgusted with their manner of playing. Harold, the Wholesale pitcher, who was knocked from the rubber in the first part of the game, and who has been the leader in many other useless arguments with the umpire in recent games, again tried to tell Umpire "Phil" Grimes that he was last night, but he found himself treading in deep water.

The kind of a game that was played last night is just the kind that spoils the interest developed by the other teams in the league. The score:

FOUR BALL GAMES SET FOR TOMORROW

Only Two of Them Will be Played in This County.

Tomorrow's Schedule.
Monongah Glass vs. Monongah at Traction park—2:30 p. m.
Idamay vs. Carolina at Carolina—2:30 p. m.
Consumer Fuel Co. vs. Clarksburg at Clarksburg—3 p. m.
Monongah (second team) vs. Wyatt at Wyatt—2:30 p. m.

Marion county teams will participate in four games tomorrow, two of which will be played in Harrison county and two in Marion county.
At Traction park the big game of the day will be between the Monongah Glass, the undefeated City league nine and the fast Monongah team. The game will start promptly at 2:30 p. m. and a large crowd is expected to be out.

Another good game will be played at Carolina between the Idamay and Carolina teams. Idamay has defeated Carolina once this season, but tomorrow the Carolina boys will be in the game in an effort to redeem themselves.

At Clarksburg the fast Norwood team will battle with the Consumer Fuel company nine and a real game will be the result. The Norwood team is the only team which has been able to defeat the nine from Downs this season.
The Monongah second team is scheduled to play at Wyatt tomorrow. Wyatt has a good team but the Monongah boys believe they can take them into camp.

Two Good Games in City League Today

When the Mining Machinery and Watson building teams come together at South Side park this afternoon at 4 o'clock another of those good Saturday afternoon games is sure to result.
The first game, beginning at 2 o'clock will be between teams representing the Mid-West Box company and the Monongah Glass.
